A Message Concerning the COVID-19 Shelter-in-place

All of us are being asked to take unprecedented measures in order to slow the spread of the coronavirus (COVID-19). At Summit, we are honoring the orders of government and health officials in order to do our part. We will be working remotely and we are suspending in-person meetings until further notice. Thankfully, with video technology this is not nearly the challenge it would have been a decade ago.

Our advisors and operations team remain committed to delivering the same high level of service you have come to expect from us. We will continue to be available through our main phone line as well as through email. Furthermore, all market and trading activities will continue without restriction from our custodians as well.

In the days and weeks ahead, we will remain dedicated to serving your best interests while maintaining procedures to ensure your safety and the safety of our employees and advisors. We will update you as new information becomes available. But for now, know that we are here to guide you through this unique moment in time.

Sincerely,

Your Summit Team
